NEEDING HELP

Would you like to have more help on the farm or with your business?

But don't know how to go about advertising for the right person.

How do you weed out those who you know wouldn't be suitable?

WORKERS WANTED:

Rural Area: Please do not apply if you oversleep, have court often, do not have a babysitter every day, have to get rides to work later than our work day begins, experience flat tyres every week, have to hold on to a cell phone all day, or will become an expert at your job with no need to learn or take advice after the first day. Must be able to talk and work at the same time. Must also remember to come back to work after lunch. Should not expect to receive gold stars for being on time.

If you qualify, please leave your name and number at 02-6347##^* and someone will get back to you and organise an interview.

I'm sure you have guessed it by now!

Yes it is a joke – a really good one.

But whoever wrote it got it soooo right whether it was a joke or not.

In real life - Not sure this advert would be politically correct but you would think you should be able to advertise exactly what you require or not in an employee.

But back to the joke -----

Hope you had a bit of a laugh as life can be so serious

We will be cleaning the hall on Saturday 16th April at 9.30am. The hall has been sprayed for spiders etc and will definitely require a major clean-up of cobwebs, dead bodies and lots of dust and of course the bathrooms will need cleaning. If you can lend a hand, your efforts will be greatly appreciated as we want the hall to look its best for these two special occasions. – Hall Committee

BLAST FROM THE PAST Extracts from IDLE CHATTER

Extract from IDLE CHATTER No: 243 THURS 13th Sept 1966
METHODIST FAIR – Well stocked, well organised and well-staffed stalls together with “Ye olde Curiosity Shoppe” and the proverbial “Cuppa” made a very successful Methodist Fair. I did hear an amount quoted as the proceeds but will await confirmation. A trophy for the best geranium in a pot judged for the flower was not apparently competed for. However the same thing but judged for the foliage was won by Mrs Wainwaring. The shoulder spray award went to Miss Lynette Hunter and Mrs Reg Penfold took the award for the High Arrangement. In the Junior section Marilyn Hunter won the floral saucer and Rosemary Piefke was successful with the Breakfast arrangement. The antique which by public vote was declared the most interesting, was the carved soapstone ornament presented by Wayne Pearse. Apart from the prize winning entry, there was plenty of interest in the other articles shown.

ODDS & ENDS – I’ve got room to burn this week so look out ----- A certain resident of this fair village of ours is a very worried man. He has just discovered that a certain public building which is being fenced at the moment has no -----er-----well it just hasn’t got one. In times of stress or uncertainty he feels that he would be justified in crying out “Wither go-est thou”. It is rather absurd you know. Everyone knows you can’t have a big house without a ----- Well you can’t, so please have it seen to ..... That fixed him. He dared me to publish that.....

If you have nothing to do, pop over to Caragabal on Sunday and watch yet another football match between the combined “Rural Youth” members of Bribbaree, Quandialla and Caragabal and those of Grenfell these Grenfell jokers just won’t give in... You should have heard a certain person crying about not having enough room to even sign he name so as a special concession I am donating the bottom corner for the purpose of autographs.

I am lazy. Here is Mitcho’s dilly effort instead.
