Another very important day on every family's calendar was last Sunday!

I hope everyone had a marvellous 'Mother's Day'

We all know it's a very special day for the family to show how much they appreciated their Mum and I hope everyone got the chance to do that.

A MOTHER

When you're a child a Mother walks before you – To set an example

When you are a teenager a Mother walks behind you –

To be there should you need her help

When you're an adult a Mother walks beside you –

As two friends so you are not walking alone

A SPECIAL THOUGHT for THOSE MOTHERS NO LONGER WITH US

You are near, even if I don't see you.

You are with me, even if you are far away.

You are in my heart, in my thoughts, in my life, Always.

A Belated Happy Mother's Day to all Mothers', Grandmothers', Great Grandmothers', Foster Mums, and those who have lost their Mother.

Everyone knows all Mothers are PRICELESS

JUST IN TIME FOR MOTHERS' DAY

BEST WISHES & CONGRATULATIONS to Simon and Clare Nowlan on the safe arrival of Beatrice Helen, a beautiful daughter and a new sister for Georgina.
Congratulations also go to proud grandparents Ged and Robyn Nowlan.

The BEST Mother's Day - Ever

Our family had a wonderful Mother's Day weekend.

I became a grandmother for the 2nd time and my Mum was very excited when she heard she was a great grandmother again.

As our other children said it was hard to top Court's pressie.

Our beautiful granddaughter - Macy Fay was born on Friday 6th May, Macy looks like her big sister Stella but with darker hair colouring and is just so cute.....

John and I had a wonderful time looking after Stella for the weekend.

Stella arrived in Quandi on Thursday night for her first solo sleepover. I had it all worked out - on Friday I was going to show Stella off to everyone that came into the Post Office, but I forgot to tell Stella. I put her down for her morning nap at 10am which usually lasts an hour (not at my house) Stella slept till 1pm and then I had to go in and wake her. We took off for Wagga after work to visit the new arrival, very successful visit, though Stella thought Macy was a new toy and when she didn't make any noise she lost interest, but we got lots of cuddles.

Shopping on Saturday, we hit our one and only major snag. Two grandparents had a major melt down in Kmart carpark trying to put up the pram.
I'm a little embarrassed to say we might have taught Stella her first swear word, and even more embarrassed that I had to ring Court to find out what the trick was and absolutely more embarrassed when she told us - it was so simple - too simple for us old folks. Thankfully the rest of the weekend went without any hitches and that was only because Stella is a dream child - so easy going. As long as someone was in sight she was a happy girl. A great weekend had by all.
