Everyone would have been shocked to hear of Graham Sweeny's terrible farm accident last Friday and his emergency flight to Royal North Shore Hospital. I'm sure all Idle Chatter readers will join me in offering our thoughts, hopes and prayers for Graham to give him the inner strength to help him return to good health. Our thoughts and prayers also go to Angela, Tim, Jaci and the Sweeny Family at this stressful time.

QUANDIALLA HALL / PROGRESS
WORKING BEE & CLEAN UP AUSTRALIA DAY
Saturday 4th March 2017 at 9am

DON'T FORGET the Working Bee that will be held at the Quandialla Soldiers Memorial Hall to do maintenance work on the Hall. Bring along your tool box or join others to clean up around the area, bring gloves and garbage bags.

As a special treat, Secretary Marlene, will supply morning tea to all workers.

Hope to see you there as our Hall is a major asset in our village and it needs a little TLC and with your help, that will happen.

ST MARKS ANGLICAN CHURCH service will be held on Sunday 5th March at 6pm.
ALL WELCOME

TIPPING COMPETITION

It's that time of the year again – the footy season starts this Thursday. The Pub and Club are each holding a 'Tipping Competition' again and it's not too late to put your name down and join in the fun at one or even both venues.

CONGRATULATIONS:

Congratulations to Brett Causer on his new venture

Motion as Medicine – Exercise Physiology, Health and Performance.

Brett is currently based in Temora where he is providing exercise physiology services with the aim of inspiring and educating people to a greater health status, particularly those with chronic and complex health conditions.

Brett looks forward to assisting his patients in moving better, living stronger and feeling great.

Doctor: Are you involved in any dangerous sports?

Silly, silly Man: Well, sometimes I disagree with my wife.

BLAST FROM THE PAST Extracts from IDLE CHATTER

Extract from IDLE CHATTER No: 198

Thurs. 21st August 1963

FOR SALE – One block of land in Quandialla whereon is a building which was one time the Court House. As most of you know, this was purchased by “Frosty” George and removed to its present site. This building still has the skids beneath it and would not present too great a problem to remove. The price for the land and the building is £100 which is certainly not dear. Fuller particulars from “Frosty” or Myself.

SUCCESS – Our little success story of the week springs from the fact that Norman Armour who you all know, has by sheer hard work and determination just purchased 1100 acres of good country at Bingara. It has a two mile frontage to the river and further success should come from this venture. Jolly good luck to you Norm and I can tell you that Dad and Mum are mighty proud of you.

TAKING IT EASY – Peter, the son of Mine Host Norman Quine is at present in Temora Hospital suffering from a complaint which to date has not been defined. It does not appear to be serious and should there be no relapse he is expected home with-in a day or so.

DIGGERS BALL – Most of you will be receiving this sheet early enough on Friday to make up your mind that the Digger’s Ball is on Ball that you are not going to miss. The Riverina R.J.’s will provide the music and the Auxiliary will put on a most delicious poultry supper. The admission is a paltry thirty bob for a double ticket. Let your head go and bring the “Missus” for a night out.

DAFFODIL FAIR – This annual function will be held in the Memorial Hall on Friday September 13th. The schedule shows many competitions and stalls and will be worthy of your support. The organising secretaries are E. Hunter and M.I. Troy. If you wish to make an entry or desire more information, please get in touch with either of those ladies. Keep this day free....

Cheers until next week Sue Priestley
