THURS. 9th September 1960

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr Bryson Causer, You've, got to call him Mister now because last Thursday he was 21 years old. Oh you, lucky fellow. Approx. 150 guests arrived at "Wah Way" that night for the party which was arranged for the occasion. Like a big alec I got home too late to attend but from all reports, it was a scrumptious do. The highlight of the evening was the announcement of Bryson's engagement to Miss Wilma Troth. I don't somehow think it was a real surprise but that is beside the point. May I, on behalf of the readers of IC, offer to Wilma and Bryson all good wishes for the future.

WHY - are you once again cursed with this Idle Chatter business? Quite frankly I cannot tell you. Perhaps the fact that agents from out of town are busy with circulars is the reason and then again it may be because of the poor attendance at the public meeting last week. Then again it could be that I really enjoy writing it. Whatever the reason, if you are organising a function and don't take advantage of the free publicity, you can only blame yourself. So there..... Kenny Harris asks that you make your entries for the 1960 Show as early as possible. Help this young fellow to make this a record show. Look around and see what you can do to make more entries.

IT'S GREAT TO BE A GRANDPARENT

Since our grandchildren moved from Wagga to Coffs Harbour in May I have been counting the days before we were going to see them. Finally, John and I had the pleasure of having our youngest daughter, hubby and our 2 gorgeous granddaughters stay for 8 days last week, they even helped me fold 2 weeks of Idle Chatter.

Even though we had to work around their visit we had a great time, they got to play with all of Court's toys that we had kept, plus quite a few new ones. Stella surprised both John and I with her acting ability, we sang and danced our way through the week. I have to admit I was so tired when they left, a good type of tired but it's hard work trying to keep up with 2 kids under 2½, they were on the go 24/7 and Stella did not stop talking poor Macy couldn't get a word in.

We waved them off and instantly collapsed on the lounge, now we are counting the days again until our next visit.

All grandchildren are brilliant and beautiful and obviously take after their grandmother

Cheers everyone
Sue Priestley
